Dear Dr Ahmad

I am pleased to inform you that the University has conferred upon you the title of Honorary Senior Clinical Lecturer in the School of Cancer Sciences within the College of Medical and Dental Sciences from 01 April 2012 to 31 March 2015.

This honorary appointment is not intended to confer any employment rights and you are therefore not entitled to receive any benefits including paid leave, remuneration or expenses from the University as part of this honorary appointment. Nothing in this letter will create a relationship of employer and employee between the University of Birmingham and you.

You are welcome to make appropriate use of University facilities by joining the Library, using our Sports centre, and the facilities in Staff House. Details on these facilities can be found on the University's website at <https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/hr/affiliates/honorary-staff.aspx>

The honorary appointment will expire on the termination date without further notice, unless it is extended in advance by mutual agreement.

The honorary appointment is held in accordance with the conditions held on the above link.

I hope you will accept this offer and I should be grateful if you would sign, date and return the attached copy of this letter along with the enclosed joiners form.

The person number you will require to obtain a university identification card and gain access to information systems is 1304653.

Yours sincerely

Jo Wood
